We invite our readers' attention to the editorial about the Health Unit for this county—a unit that, after investigation in Harrison county, we deem absolutely essential. The big problem remains to show the "country" supervisors the necessity of creating such a unit.

"We desire that we will have a good stable city and a good stable county when the war activities are over. To that end, we hope that the City and the County will not go the limit on anything; that they will not expand their "plants" (with their own funds) to take care of a host of temporary residents. If great extensions are required, let the government pay for them

As in ALL local campaigns, the GCW propose to preserve a status of strict neutrality. Of course, we are going to vote for the man of our choice, but, certainly, we will do or say nothing concerning the others.

Our friend and subscriber, Bob Horton, of Canton, was in Grenada for a brief period Tuesday. Bob is one of the best of the name.

Please note our want ad section. Many tracts of land are offered to sale. The old lady has 300 acres of land just inside of the delta that she is not married to. 100 odd acres in cultivation, four tenant houses.

His many friends in this county will be interested to know that Julian James, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Virgil James, of Grenada, is a candidate for State Senator of Craighead County, Arkansas. Julian has repeatedly been honored by the people of his adopted county, and we know that his Grenada friends are "pulling" for him in this race.

Potential candidates for Mayor are gun shy because of the possibility that Mayor may get only $50.00 per month and no costs Roy Doak is Mayor until his successor is elected and seated.

The short hours and easy work at the Barwin are agreeing with Selma as she is getting better looking all the time.

A number of plans that Air Corps officials were in the Grenada area Wednesday looking over possible sites for the basing of two squadrons of fighters. The Coffeeville area was investigated; the area near Osberry was investigated; and the area where the city and county own a potential air field was investigated. Unofficial talk is that the latter area was said to be the most satisfactory.

Mr. Penn is a native of the southern part of Grenada county, and has lived in Grenada since the time that the memory of man runneth not to the contract.

Having lived here for forty or fifty years, the people of Grenada know Mr. Penn, know his strength and his weaknesses, if any, and it is unnecessary for the GCW, only five years old to seek to dwell at length upon Mr. Penn and his life and character.

On Monday night the members of the Grenada Chapter of I. C. Boosters Club met for its regular monthly meeting. Mr. Rogers Burt, president, presided and Mr. L. J. Doak, Mayor of the City, spoke to the club, stressing the purchase of war bonds and stamps. Miss Ann Odum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Odum, read "The Symbol of Freedom" for the group and was greatly appreciated. Ann won fourth place this Spring in the State Contest of orotlorical speakers, sponsored each year by the American Legion, and her Grenada friends are proud of her ability.

Approximately 16 divorce suits were heard, in most of which cases the marital unions were dissolved.

The litigation of the County versus about 16 holders of leases on 16th Section school lands was postponed until the October term.

Last week we stated that the Pressgrove property was bought by the school for twenty-five THOUSAND dollars; it was really bought for twenty-five HUNDRED dollars. In this day and time, with billions talked of as white chips in a friendly poker game, such an error should be excusable.

Anyway, excuse it, please.

Mr. Parish Taylor and wife of Birmingham, and Miss Gene Marders of Belhaven College, Jackson, attended the funeral with their mother.

Grenada friends to attend the funeral were Miss Jane Young, Mrs. H. L. Honecutt, Mr. and Mrs. George Grant, and Mrs. John Martin.

Private W. Edward Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, Sr., Hardy Miss., was graduated from the huge Air Corps Technical School Keeseville Field after an intensive 19-week course which prepared him to serve as an Airplane Mechanic "on the line."

Private Smith's class, which numbered in the hundreds, will be dispersed among the many units of the Army Air Forces to maintain and service Uncle Sam's planes. The course here includes training in aircraft maintenance fundamentals, airplane structures, hydraulic systems, propellers, instruments, engines, electrical systems, fuel systems, engine operation and inspection of single and multi-motored planes.

At this time there are two things in particular which I want to say in behalf of my candidacy. First, that I am willing to perform the duties of city office for the salary the position customarily pays; and I propose, if elected, to relinquish my legal rights to any and all fees and cost and turn the same back into the City Treasury. Second, I am opposed to any expenditures except those which are absolutely necessary, especially for the duration of the war. It is also my desire to work in harmony with the Board of Aldermen and all other city and county officials for the good of our city, state and country.

War Bonds and Stamps Sold By Woman's Club

The Woman's Club announces the sum of $4,125.55 collected in the drive for the past week. This amount represents sales made on Saturday, April 18, Monday, April 20, and Wednesday, April 22nd. Congratulations ladies!

The American Legion today rents the Legion Hall on Mound Street for use as a skating rink, which will be open Thursday or Friday night of the week. Rink will be open with all new equipment.

"Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., Secretary of Agriculture Claude B. Wickard and leaders of business and labor organizations will speak on a special broadcast Thursday night over the Blue net, from 10 to 10:30 P.M.T. The broadcast will be devoted to discussion of the National War Bond quota system and the ten percent payroll-savings plan. A special guest on the program will be the hero Navy pilot, Lt. Commander Edward Henry O'Hare, who was promoted today from the rank of Lt. Other speakers on the broadcast will include William Green, president of the A.M. Federation of Labor, Philip Murray, president of the Congress of Industrial Organization, W. P. Withrow, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, John W. O'Leary, chairman of the executive committee of the United States Chamber of Commerce and T. C. Cushman, chairman of the Railway Executives Association."

The date for the registration of the above listed users and sellers of sugar has been set for April 25th and 29th.

Application forms are on hand at the Local Rationing Board, office at Moody Insurance Agency in Grenada and you are urged to get those forms in advance of registration so that proper information will be in your hands prior to registration. This does not apply to consumers whose registration will be held May 10th, 5th, 6th 7th.

The registration sites for Grenada County are: Grenada High School, Holcomb High School and Gore Springs School.

A course of study in auxiliary fire training under the local Civilian Defense program is beginning Monday night at eight o'clock at the local fire station. An out of town instructor with a great deal of experience in fire fighting has been engaged to conduct the class. A number of men too old for military service, or draft exempt, are needed for the class. All those desiring to aid their community through this effort are cordially invited to attend.

Rev. W. L. Robinson will start a revival meeting, lasting a week, at the 11 o'clock service at the Methodist Church on Sunday, May 3, 1942.

The public is most cordially invited to attend as many meetings as possible. More details will be published next week.

Art Quantree had a grand opening at his new place on 51 South Wednesday evening.

Dame Rumor Hath It

That the "big boys" of Grenada had a meeting over Grenada Bank last Wednesday night to talk over the potentialities of the vacant seat of Mayor.

That the "small boys" from "Across the Border" (they call the area, "South of the Ditch"), held a meeting Thursday night looking to agreeing upon some candidate for mayor.

In this world of ours, there are a hell of a lot more small boys than there are big boys.

In this city of ours, if the small boys combine and agree upon a candidate they can easily elect a candidate.

But, in the meantime, the situation is complicated by the rumor that the big boys are going to ask the City Council to reduce the Mayor's salary to a nominal sum, and at this writing (Wednesday noon), there are no candidates for this most important job.

We reiterate the stand last week that, while it is most desirable to have a Mayor who will accept the job at a nominal salary and devote $500 worth of his time per month for $50.00, WE ARE LIKELY NOT TO GET SUCH A MAN. We continue to believe that we should have a Mayor—the very best possible one—and pay him a decent salary AND also have a Police Judge to handle the trial of city cases and pay HIM a decent salary, permitting the costs to revert to the City Treasury.

If we should happen to elect a Mayor who would shut his eyes upon proper greasing of his palms, he would be willing to pay the city a bonus for the opportunity to serve. Innumerable temptations will beset a WEAK man who occupies either the post of Mayor or the post of Police Judge.

God help Grenada select a good man, whether he comes from South of the Border, or North of the Border.

Health Unit

From our observation in Biloxi, and from consultation with one of the Commissioners of that city, we are convinced that it is almost imperative that a Health Unit be set up in this army camp area, but we have found no legal objection to establishment of such a unit jointly by Montgomery County and Grenada County. Much patronage from the soldiers will go to Winona and to Grenada. Of necessity, we cannot hope to finance a unit like that maintained by the rich county of Harrison, containing two of Mississippi's largest towns, Biloxi and Gulfport, nor can Grenada County alone, or Grenada County and Montgomery County jointly maintain a unit costing $20,000.00 per year—the figure secured from one of the county supervisors of Harrison County.

We have been informed that a Health Unit in this county would cost $7,500.00 per year. This would amount to one and one-half mills on every dollar's worth of property in the county. If the expense could be split between the two counties, only about three-fourths of a mill would be necessary, if our arithmetic is OK.

Not being concerned with the internal affairs of Montgomery County, we hesitate to suggest that the City of Winona should bear part of the burden; but, being vitally concerned with the internal affairs of Grenada County, we unhesitatingly suggest that the City of Grenada cooperate financially with the County of Grenada in this Health Unit. Grenada and Beat One will be the primary beneficiaries of the operation of this unit. The benefits to the four "country" beats of this county will be decidedly secondary to the benefits to Grenada and Beat One.

We believe that some arrangements can be made whereby he who benefits most will pay most.

The Union Label

If there is a newspaper in Mississippi manned by union labor, we do not know where it is. The various candidates for state and national offices always expect the newspapers to print the self-praise of these candidates without charge. These candidates evidently think that the country editors are pressed for something "to fill up" their columns, and will welcome this free stuff.

So far we have received long-winded announcements from Roll-tem Wall, Wall Dookey and Jim Eastland, none of which had checks attached, and all of which found their way to the oblation which the Garrett Snuff carton, serving as a waste paper basket, affords. Irrespective of whom we vote for, we do not propose to use our valuable space in praising any of the candidates. We charge the would-be constable for his announcement, the would-be officers of all kinds for their announcements, and do not propose to furnish ANY free publicity for ANY state candidate.

Were we inclined to furnish this publicity to the Senatorial candidates, we would recall that these fellows invariably have their printing done by printers who can affix the Union Label on the printed matter, forgetting that it is the unionized publisher-printer who often is fool enough to furnish all the free publicity.

As the fire shortage becomes more and more acute it is going to become more and more difficult for the candidates to reach the speaking places, and more and more difficult for the voters to reach the speaking places, hence the candidates are going to have to depend more and more upon the country newspapers to get the messages to the people. At this particular time, the country printer-publisher has a greater than ever opportunity to demand that he produce the printed matter necessary in the several campaign headquarters.

As for our experience, we have expended thousands of column inches of space in promoting a certain perennial candidate, and have NEVER GOT A NICKLE WORTH'S of printing from him.

In the future, we take the attitude that we can use our space to greater advantage by refraining from praising ANY candidate.

Commending The Sheriff And His Force

Sometime ago we urged that the sheriff and the city marshal, especially the former (because most of the devilry would be practiced in his jurisdiction) to get hard and stay hard on the parasites that are bound to come to prey upon the people who work in the camp.

We understand that the sheriff's force already stopped the operation of slot machines and a dice table at a re-opened place South of town.

This writer poses as no Puritan. To confess the truth, he likes to shoot dice and has shot a good many of them, but the writer's doings are not to be taken as a criterion of virtuous conduct.

If the officers give the parasites an inch, they will take a mile. Therefore, it is best not to give them an inch.

Keep up the good work, boys.

Fifth Columnists

If you are looking for a Fifth Columnist do not expect to find one who had a big round belly and say "Ja, Ja" or a little rat-eyed yellow fellow with big lenses and with buck teeth, or even one who smells to High Heaven of garlic.

You are more likely to find one right in your own neighborhood who unconsciously and without malice is really a 5th Columnist.

He is the fellow who spreads wild rumors; he is one who speaks disparagingly of our leaders without suggesting a better course for them to pursue; he is the defeatist who "just knows" we are going to be licked in a few months; he is the alarmist who tells what he heard a fellow say he heard from a fellow on the train say what he heard over the radio; he is the fellow who wants to know "where the hell the Navy is," and "what the hell we have an Air Force for," in short the Fifth Columnist is the individual who preaches defeat, spreads rumors and destroys faith in our country's ability to win.

Another type of Fifth Columnist, who is just as harmful as the defeatist type, is the individual who is too damn optimistic; the one who, in face of the continued reverses of the Allies, says that we will have Hitler, Mussolini and the Son of Heaven in chains by the 4th of July.

The First Columnist is the individual who, knowing the existence of a perilous situation, brushes back his hair, rolls up his sleeves and goes to work at his appointed task, whether that task is on the parade ground, on the deck of a ship, or in the factory or office.

UNDER THE MAGNOLIA TREE

By Herbert B. Allen

In this country there are thousands of newspapers, edited by men of all shades of social, economic and political beliefs. But it is doubtful if any two men write on one editorial page, who differ more widely in temperament, and in political outlook, than Whyte Whitaker and I.

Whyte is conservative to the ultimate degree. No Mississippi editor is more typically, or more singularly Southern. He graphically reflects all that heritage of traditional beliefs, that body of social and economic convictions, and those sectional attitudes, that indelibly stamp the well educated Southerner.

No man in Grenada County possesses a finer, or more admirable background than Whyte. The Whitaker and Hall families were pioneers in this region of Mississippi. They were distinguished in the professions, and as planters.

Whyte was educated at Georgia's famous School of Technology, in Atlanta. He is gifted with a naturally shrewd mind, has splendid powers of observation and analysis developed by his engineering studies, is mentally and morally honest, is unusually practical, and is both humane and tolerant in his outlook. As a writer, he possesses an inimitable style that is widely admired and enjoyed in Mississippi.

Whyte knows the South as only a Southerner can know and understand it; he knows its strength and its weakness. He knows intimately the noble qualities of Southern character; he knows the foibles, the negligence and the vanity inherent in Southern character. No illusions cloud his view of the Southern scene.

Whyte is a Democrat who does not believe in true Democracy. There is nothing unusual in that paradox. I am not sure that I know of a single well educated Southerner who actually believes in true Democracy.

According to the English dictionary, Democracy implies belief in social and political equality; and I am sure I know of no Southern gentleman who would be so hypocritical as to profess a belief in social and political equality. (Shades of the Poll Tax!) But I am greatly indebted to Whyte for liberalizing my own views of practical Democracy.

I am a member of an English family whose chief claim to distinction is that many of its members have been Liberals, some of whom have been well ahead of the social and economic views of their time.

I believe, religiously, that the truth, as taught by Jesus of Nazareth, has a direct bearing on the solution of all human problems, in all places, and at all times.

The teaching of Jesus Christ was accepted at face value by William Shakespeare. What was deemed to be true by the greatest genius that ever wrote in the English language, is certainly accepted as true UNDER THE MAGNOLIA TREE.

I am a firm believer in government of the people, by ALL of the people and FOR all of the people. From first hand observation, I am convinced that the magnitude of the blunders, committed in the name of government, by the so called ruling classes, could scarcely be duplicated by a government formed exclusively from the ranks of average persons.

I firmly believe, that in this age, the prosperity of the great middle class to which I belong by birth and by choice, is entirely dependent upon the ability of the great mass of the common people to purchase the products of agriculture and industry; and that it is not dependent upon how many millionaires happen to be flourishing at any given time and place.

I recognize also, that the so called "poor whites" of today, will be the rulers of the South tomorrow! That is a fact of tremendous significance, which Southern Conservatism may ignore only at its own peril.

There are two distinct types of Conservatism; and two distinct types of Liberalism. There is the common, garden variety of Conservatism which endeavors solely to oppose all progress; it is blind, unreasoning and suicidal. It is a ball and chain on society.

There is intelligent, progressive Conservatism which seeks to take all that is valuable in the thought and practice of the past, and modernize it, and adapt it, insofar as is possible, to the conditions prevailing in the present. Less than two percent of Southern Conservatism qualifies under this definition.

There are two types of Liberalism. Unintelligent Liberalism is usually marked by attempts to impose changes on our social and economic structure, beyond the point where people are prepared to accept the changes made necessary by the wheels of progress.

Intelligent Liberalism is the principal source of the thinking, and action, that brings our social, economic and legal customs and practices abreast of the conditions created by the automobile, the airplane, the streamlined diesel-motored aluminum train, the mass production line in industry, the mechanical cotton picker, and the innumerable gadgets and devices of the age of electricity and invention.

A great many Conservatives are unaware that the things they hold most sacred, were once considered the crazy dreams of some Liberal thinker.

Even the central figure of Christianity was tried before the Supreme Court of His people, and was crucified on the cross at Calvary, because of the offense His teaching gave to the vested interests, and the privileged classes of His time. (Incidentally, how long has it been since YOU read the four gospels INTELLIGENTLY and

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

Had a long announcement from Hon. Wall Dookey, asking that we publish it as a news item. No check was attached. We are therefore using the other side of the announcement for copy paper. We charge Congressional, judicial, city and county candidates for their political thunder and feel no obligation to break the rule in favor of candidates of the U. S. Senate. Anyway, we will say, as a matter of news interest that Wall Dookey is a candidate to succeed himself, whether he ever does so or not. We have no kindly feeling for any Senator or Congressmen who were responsible for the hell of a mess they got this country into. ANYBODY might be an improvement.

One lady admitted that she was the one who scraped her tires in the curb and wore off about 300 miles of precious rubber. She is not the only one who does it.

A good many of those who are being freed by Judge Smith this week are figuring on getting back into bondage by Squire Boushe or some preacher next week.

As Mr. Allen says in his article this week, he and I represent two distinct schools of thought. What he writes, I do not necessarily agree with, but he is a deep student, a man of honor and a man who will work hard for what he believes to be right.

It looks like to us, after investigating conditions in Biloxi, near which town is located Keesler Field, some kind of health unit is absolutely necessary in this county. Perhaps, Montgomery and Grenada County could cooperate by establishing ONE health unit, and divide the expense. Either county, compared to Harrison County (containing both Biloxi and Gulfport) and Forest County (where Camp Shelby is located) are small and poor counties. But, in any event, the country supervisors of Grenada county are going to have to be convinced of the dire necessity of such an unit. The best way to convince them is to show them that the unit will be of benefit to THEIR people. Lowrating and cussing them, and accusing them of being shortsighted, will be of no avail.

We certainly hope that the owners of rental property in this community will be reasonable in their increases in rental charges. It would be a shame for the federal government to enter this community and FORCE our people to reduce rents, and force the refund of rents already collected.

Mike's eyesight is getting better as he recognized me the other day when I stopped briefly in Jackson.

THOUGHTFULLY?

A strong body of intelligent Liberal and Conservative writers is absolutely essential to our national social, economic and political welfare.

Intelligent Liberalism and intelligent Conservatism are not essentially in conflict. They coordinate perfectly. One complements the other at every stage of the development of an idea, or of a project. Both schools of thought are absolutely essential to any well ordered economy.

Whyte Whitaker and I understand each other. Animated discussions, on every controversial topic under the sun, never once degenerated into an argument.

Add to our mutual understanding and tolerance, the existence of a bond transcending mere friendship, and you have the explanation of how an ultra-Conservative of the Southern School, and a radical Liberal of the English School, write harmoniously, side by side, on this editorial page. The result is a presentation of opinion unique in Southern journalism.

In my humble opinion, a strong group of liberal and conservative editorial writers, animated SOLELY by a burning patriotic determination to serve only the best interests of the South, could raise the standard of living in Dixie, by nearly fifty percent, in less than twenty five years! Two percent annually is no visionary dream.

Whyte and I are Veterans; we may not be around another twenty five years. But while this editorial page is our medium, our efforts, and our influence will always be directed toward the goal of a better and happier South - toward a finer and more glorious heritage for the young South that is ever in the march.

In Matthew 5:5 may be found a simple creed, familiar to all of you: "Blessed are the meek; for they shall inherit the earth". And in that light, the social, economic and political developments of the world are interpreted for you each week, as we meet in the pleasant shade UNDER THE MAGNOLIA TREE.

GRENADA GIRLS HONORED

Sue Vandiver, Grenada, has been elected student government representative of the senior class, and Susan Proby, Grenada, has been elected secretary of the senior class of Blue Mountain College for next year.

EPISCOPAL AUXILIARY

Mrs. John King and Miss Robbie Doak were hostess to the Auxiliary of All Saints Episcopal Church on Monday.

Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, president, presided during a lengthy business meeting. Mrs. Sherwood, secretary and Mrs. Earl Burkley, treasurer, gave their reports. The C. P. C. group met at Mrs. Walter Doty's home and Mrs. C. C. Cathey, chairman of the group, presided.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY CIRCLE NO. 9

The Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church met in the homes of members this past Monday and each circle at attendance was splendid.

Circle No. 3 met in the home of Mrs. P. H. Youngblood, and Mrs. S. L. Murphy was co-hostess. Twenty members were present. Mrs. H. D. Lane is chairman of this circle. Mrs. W. B. Noonan led the devotional and Mrs. Harry Adams, program leader gave a most comprehensive outline of the year's program. Mrs. Margaret Noel led the special prayers.

Circle No. 2 met in the home of Mrs. John Martin. Mrs. Gertrude Marders, program leader, was out of town, and the hostess substituted for her. After the devotional, led by Mrs. Junius Townes, Jr., and Mrs. Martin, a discussion of the year's work filled the hour devoted to Auxiliary affairs. Mrs. Martin served strawberries and cake. Two guests besides the 12 members were present and they were Mesdames Davis and Bowman.

DAVIS-RICHARDS

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Davis, of Graysport, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Loola Davis to D. A. Richards, Jr., of Canton, Miss.

The impressive single ring ceremony was performed by Dr. W. A. Hewitt, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of Jackson, in his home on Tuesday evening, April 14, at seven o'clock.

The bride was attired in a stylish gown of navy blue crepe with chiffon yoke with ornament of pearl. Her accessories were of navy and white and she carried a bouquet of orchids and sweetheart roses.

The bride had as her only attendant her sister, Miss Jewel Davis, of Canton, who wore a stylish gown of light blue with accessories of rose pink. Her corsage was of pink gladioli and rosebuds.

Sergeant Jimmie Cain, of Canton, now stationed at Camp Bowie, Texas, served as best man.

Mrs. Richards graduated from the State Springs High School and from the Miss. State Charity Hospital School of Nursing. She has been employed as technician in the K. D. Hospital in Canton for the past two years. Corp. Richards graduated from the Canton High School and attended Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge. Since his induction into the army he has been stationed at Camp Polk, La.

After a brief wedding trip Mrs. Richards resumed her duties and Corp. Richards returned to camp.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB

The April 21 meeting of the Twentieth Century Club was the final meeting for this club year, and was on Tuesday of this week. This meeting, because of a "lost" meeting the Tuesday following the day on which the tornado struck, had several hostesses. Twenty members and one non-member guest, Miss Mary Hall, were present.

Mrs. J. K. Arent, president, graciously presided throughout the meeting. Mrs. T. B. Revell, secretary, Mrs. J. C. Prose, treasurer, and Mrs. E. A. Penn, corresponding secretary, gave their reports.

Mrs. Arent called for the report from the nominating committee and in the absence of Mrs. E. L. Marders, chairman of nominating committee the secretary read the names of next year's officers as follows: President, Mrs. J. B. Perry, Sr.; Vice President, Mrs. H. L. Honeycutt; Secretary, Mrs. T. B. Revell; Treasurer, Mrs. J. C. Prose; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. E. A. Penn.

The resignation of two splendid members, Mrs. J. K. Arent, who has served the club for two years as president, and Mrs. J. L. Cooley, Jr., were accepted with deep regret by the entire club. The chairman of Membership, Mrs. J. L. Cooley, Jr., presented the names of Mrs. Ethel Kimbrough Thiel and Mrs. Craddock for club membership, and they were duly elected.

Mrs. John Rundle gave a remarkable and most impressive review of Lewis Mumford's book "Faith For Living."

Following the program the ladies sang "God Bless America," and during the social half hour refreshments consisting of strawberry short cake with whipped cream and coffee were served. Mesdames H. J. Ray, J. C. Prose, John T. Keeton, W. W. Whitaker, R. A. Clanton and the president, Mrs. J. K. Arent were hostess. The next meeting, unless a call meeting, will be next September.

Mrs. S. H. Horton returned home from Memphis on Sunday afternoon after attending the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Collins. Mrs. Horton reports her mother's condition as improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Whitaker, of Memphis, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Whitaker.

Dr. F. A. Stacy attended the Dental Association held in Jackson the past week.

Mrs. Selma Y. Anderson, of Lambert, is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. E. Yeager and sister, Mrs. Lella Pearson.

Griffis Meek, who has been attending an aeronautic defense school at Glendale, Calif., for the past year, returned home Saturday night to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Meek.

Mesdames Cowles Horton, Andrew Carothers, C. H. Calhoun, H. O. Blyd, and L. E. Noble attended Presbyterian in Sumner on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Johnson, of Indianola, have returned to Grenada to reside. They are at home at the Cas Heath residence on Fourth Street. Welcome home, folks!

Burnell Walker, of Camp Robinson, Ark., spent the week-end here with his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Prose spent the Easter holidays with their son, James, who is studying "pre-med" at Tulane University at New Orleans.

Mr. Will Harris Crowder and family are back home after several years residence at Knoxville, Tenn., where Mr. Crowder was employed by the government. Mr. Crowder, an engineer, is to direct some of the work on the army camp roads here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Saunders were business visitors in Memphis on Wednesday.

Edward Cary Walthall

This being his birth month, it seems fitting that a sketch of the life of Grenada county's most distinguished citizen should be given to the history of the county by Grenada Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Born April 4th, 1831, Richmond, Virginia, the center of refinement and culture when that section of our mother state was at its peak. His parents looking ahead for their young son, decided the "Land of the Leal" was toward the West; the riches of the alluvial lands along the great Father of Waters had a lure irresistible. These fond parents were no exception to many of their neighbors. Accordingly with their ten year old son they came to our historic little city of Holly Springs in the northern part of our state.

He was educated at St. Thomas Hall, a classical school of some distinction. Choosing the practice of law for his profession, he entered the office of his brother-in-law in Paducah to read up to it. It was the gentleness of his great soul and stainless life that won the affection of all those with whom he came in contact. During the darkest days of the aftermath of the Reconstruction period in Mississippi that his nobility and strength of character lifted the eyes of men to him as a pillar of light. His magnetic influence led men, rocked by economic and social revolution, to find their political equilibrium. His creed was "common decency, political honesty, and unselfish service." Thus proving "a good name is better to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver or gold."

It so happened soon after his return he met L. Q. C. Lamar. Their chance meeting was the beginning of a lasting friendship, and a brief law partnership in Coffeeville.

Shortly after the forming of Grenada County, he moved to its county site. 1871 should have a mesmeric charm for all Grenadians, since it brought to us this gifted son of the Confederacy, and Brigadier General, the youngest of that rank in the Southern Army. Here he continued his law practice, throwing the weight of his influence in the fight against carpet-bag government in our state. Col. Lamar was made Secretary of the Interior under President Cleveland in 1885, he was appointed to the United States Senate. There he served his country and state until his death, April 11, 1898. He reached the peak of his profession when the bar was in its prime. General Walthall had personal magnetism to a degree that is very rare. It was said of him that when he walked down the aisle of the senate chamber the eyes of the members followed as mesmeric charm, so honored and revered was he.

He never sought office nor political favor. But was called by the people into service; was appointed to the Senate four times, without being a candidate, and rarely spoke in a political campaign.

He was a conservative, adhered strictly to the constitution, and denounced political experiment. Lion-like in battle, he had the tender touch of a child; the manners and heart of a true gentleman. His reverence of womanhood as natural as it was strong; loyal to his friends; faithful to every trust; married twice, and was a devoted husband.

In the army, in public, or in private life he was ever ready to step aside that others might pass. His soldiers said of him that again and again he would spread his blanket over a wounded soldier, and sleep on the frozen ground himself. As commander he never forgot he was also a comrade - as Senator he ever remembered he was of the people.

Clayton Rand, our most gifted biographer, writes of him, calm, patient, baptized with the fire of many battles, he became in peace a tower of strength upon whom many millions leaned. One can but think that the inspiring experience of seeing men die willingly was what glorified Walthall into a nobility that put an heroic stamp upon his godlike soul, and perfected his comprehensive personality.

He saw the greatest soldiers of all time fight as hard for a cause when they knew it was lost as when they were winning; and no man ever had greater love and respect for the Confederate soldier. It is no wonder they worshiped the ground on which he walked. It warmed the heart, when the war was over, to see him walk down the streets of his home town and grasp the hand of the poorest, shabbiest countryman who had come home to rebuild the home which had gone to rack and ruin during those four years of fratricidal strife, and say, "Hody, Bill, how are Sallie and the children. They should be proud of you, as I am."

It was a happy day for those old soldiers when they found him in town. He remembered their wives and children by name, never failed to ask about them individually. A noted writer said of him: "There's something in our inner being which urges us to strive for something better, higher. General Walthall seemed to have created for himself a lofty ideal and lived where he passed into the Great Beyond, April 11, 1898, standing to his post of duty, despite the urgent warning of his physicians.

Lawyer, soldier, statesman, patriot and above all, a perfect gentleman, Edward Cary Walthall was Grenada's greatest citizen.

It does not make us mad to hear that Cliff Bailey's associates at North Western University have a fight every week about who shall read the GCW first.

Letter From FSA Supervisor

Grenada, Mississippi, April 14, 1942
Mr. W. W. Whitaker, Editor
Grenada County Weekly
Grenada, Mississippi

Dear Mr. Whitaker:

Last week I wrote you a rather detailed account of the possibilities of food production by low income farm families. A few days ago I ran across a health survey made by the Farm Security Administration in four typical Southern states of sons of low-income families, who have been called for selective service. I believe these figures will be interesting to you because they reveal the effect that proper food has on the health of these men who are now fighting for their country and of the thousands of others who will soon be taking places in the armed forces or in the production of weapons of war. It is indicative of the general health of the families now receiving guidance. We know that health is essential for carrying on this all-out war.

This survey, was made to ascertain how the sons of FSA borrowers stacked up from the health standpoint. In the four states studied, the survey disclosed that whereas 35.9 per cent of all draftees in this area was rejected, only 23.3 per cent of the boys from Farm Security families was found unfit for military service, despite the fact that these boys came from families who, except for FSA help, would normally have been below average in health and physical fitness.

Since its inception Farm Security has stressed the importance of good health. One of the first items on the farm and home plans of every new borrower is the growing of sufficient food to provide the families with good health. Not only are the families taught how and what to grow, but they are taught how to preserve and serve it.

You are no doubt acquainted with the conditions among these low-income families. Few of them have sufficient land and cooking equipment needed to preserve the food properly or to serve it. Families on the rehabilitation program have purchased the necessary canning equipment and kitchen utensils, and home supervisors have taught them how to prepare and serve balanced meals. In addition, these families have been given chickens, hogs, and poultry to give them a balanced diet.

Good health is essential to production on an assembly line, just as in the cotton fields of the delta. Good food will help, but sometimes, despite good care, people become ill and they need adequate medical care. In order to help the families in organizing medical care associations, Farm Security has assisted the families in organizing medical care associations. Families pay an annual fee of about $16.50 a year. In Mississippi 11,762 families are receiving adequate medical care under this plan.

Sanitary conditions are widespread on the farms of low-income farm families. These conditions breed disease and sickness. Few families have sanitary toilets, screened houses, and protected water supplies. To help eliminate these conditions, Farm Security has spent approximately $107,128 to improve sanitation on the farms of 5,132 families in Mississippi.

Good health brings increased production and happiness while poor health breeds poverty and discontent. Sincerely yours,

R. J. SISTRUNK,
County RR Supervisor, Grenada Co.

VISITS HOLLY SPRINGS

On Tuesday a group of ladies from Grenada visited many beautiful antebellum homes in Holly Springs, Miss. Included were Mrs. Velma Neely, Mrs. E. L. Boteler, Miss Edith James, Mrs. Birdie Griever, Mrs. Will Hayward, and Mrs. Junius Townes, Sr.

MISS JOHNSON HONORED

The day students at the Grenada Hospital and Mesdames Ford, Morgan, Chloe Lee, James Trussell and Miss Flora Anderson, entertained in honor of their attractive friend, Miss Ima Johnson, who on Wednesday graduated from the course of training at Grenada Hospital.

The affair was a delightfully planned supper picnic. After the "feast", the girls went to the nurses home to see all of the lovely graduation gifts.

Mrs. Bryan Baker went to Memphis early this week and brought her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, student nurse at Baptist Hospital, home. Elizabeth underwent an operation for appendicitis several days ago and will remain at home during the convalescent period.

Mrs. Annie Spencer, of Slate Springs, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lewis Odum.

Mrs. Hortense Holcomb, Matthews and Mrs. William Holcomb, returned last week from New Orleans, where they visited their nephew and husband, Mr. William Holcomb.

MISS IMA JOHNSON HONORED

Miss Ima Johnson, graduated from Grenada Hospital Wednesday of this week and was the recipient of many lovely graduation gifts and messages. She is in Water Valley now, for a few days at home before assuming her duties at the Canton King's Daughters Hospital.

UNDER THE MAGNOLIA TREE

By Herbert B. Allen

Of all the unimportant men in important positions in Washington, none is more ridiculously conspicuous than Representative Dies, chairman of the House Committee charged with unearthing subversive and un-American activities.

Martin Dies shines with the brilliant incandescence of a burned out light bulb. He is a flat tire de luxe: a square peg in a round hole; a midget assigned to a man's job. He should be relieved from the chairmanship of that committee.

There are serious un-American, un-Democratic, pro-German, pro-Fascist activities taking place in this country. I do not refer to the work of small time agitators, operating from some hole in the wall, whose influence compares with the prominence of a needle in a haystack.

There are big fish, and there are little fish, in the pond of un-American, unpatriotic activities. Representative Dies deals with the small fry. He has neither the ability, the character, nor the courage, to handle the powerful, influential offenders against the national welfare.

Prominent among the powerful un-American influences are Captain Joseph Medill Patterson, Colonel Robert R. McCormick, and William Randolph Hearst, American newspaper publishers. Hearst was publicly recognized by the Kaiser for his pro-German propaganda in this country during the first World War. His record is notorious. It is with Patterson and McCormick that the Dies Committee should immediately concern itself. Patterson publishes the tabloid New York Daily News, with two million daily, and four million Sunday circulation. McCormick gets out the Chicago Tribune, with one million daily, and a wider Sunday distribution in the Middle West. Patterson and McCormick are cousins.

In Washington, a sister of Patterson publishes the unimportant Times-Herald. This paper reprints, in the national capital, the more venomous poison that oozes from the Daily News and the Tribune.

Treason is defined in the Constitution of the United States as, among other things, giving aid and comfort to the enemy. If these three newspapers are not guilty of treason, they certainly are hovering on the borderline of that serious war time crime.

They publish full page portraits of General MacArthur, display a profusion of flags, banners, patriotic slogans and red, white and blue. Uncritical readers naturally gain the impression that these papers are ultra patriotic.

From behind this false camouflage of patriotism, they pour forth a steady stream of subversive propaganda into millions of American homes. They are the great American allies of Hitler and Hirohito.

Under the institutions of Liberty, they practice License, let their infamous abuse of the freedom of the American press has gone unnoticed, or at least unchallenged, by the government.

Why should the patriotic efforts of American publishers, to stimulate and sustain national morale and unity, be sabotaged by such conspicuous fifth columnists as Patterson, McCormick and Hearst?

I have watched the performance of the nauseating McCormick, in Chicago, for many years; of Patterson, in New York, and of Dies, in Washington, for too long! and of the rabble rousing Hearst, since I was a boy.

I do not claim that Patterson, McCormick, Hearst and Dies are in the direct, or indirect, pay of Adolf Hitler. I make no insinuations or intimations to that effect. I shall state it more bluntly than by insinuation or innuendo. IF PATTERSON, McCORMICK, HEARST AND DIES ARE NOT IN THE PAY OF ADOLF HITLER, THEY ARE BEING ROBBED BY THE GERMAN DICTATOR.

In my opinion, if Hitler were looking for the most useful agents that he could procure in the United States, he could do better than to subsidize Captain Patterson, Colonel McCormick, William Randolph Hearst and Representative Dies, of Texas.

Patterson's New York Daily News has gone so far as apparently to start a "MacArthur for President" campaign. The Daily News has no interest in General MacArthur whatever. Nothing could be better calculated to arouse the ire of that brilliant officer.

Douglas MacArthur not only is not a politician; he detests politicians with a thoroughgoing distestation. And for the most excellent reasons. The only interest the Daily News has in General MacArthur is entirely mischievous: the interest of such a man as Captain Patterson in his career could be nothing less than embarrassing, and something more than annoying.

Small time politicians of the Martin Dies type are utterly incapable of dealing with such wealthy and influential offenders as Patterson, McCormick and Hearst. As a matter of fact, men of their wealth, power and influence are quite often beyond the reach of even the United States Supreme Court. But a man of forceful character, unflinching courage and exception ability, as chairman of the House Committee, could make the position of these malefactors of great wealth most uncomfortable.

Perhaps the American people get what they deserve. Poor cotton seed never produced fine cotton. Indifference to political responsibility never produced a brilliant membership in the House of Representatives. Investments in third rate Representatives produce poor dividends indeed. We LIVE—but do we LEARN?

And if I am any judge of what IS un-American, I certainly would recommend to the membership of the House of Representatives that they desist from the pernicious practice of appointing such mental cripples as Representative Dies of Texas to the chairmanship of important congressional committees.

It is true that Mississippi is a poor state, measured in terms of material wealth. New York and Illinois possess many things that we do not possess. Sometimes this is a blessing in disguise.

But the Old Magnolia State may well be proud of the fact that there are no publishers in the Mississippi Press Association who criticize the conduct of national affairs with the deliberate purpose of undermining the confidence of the people in the integrity of their government in war time.

And there are no editorial writers in Mississippi who would prostitute their talents in the pay of such dogs of American journalism as Patterson of the New York Daily News, McCormick of the Chicago Tribune, and the unspeakable William Randolph Hearst.

We may not be very prosperous, but our birthrights are not for sale.

For Captain Patterson, I suggest the Order of the Rising Sun, with rice cakes; for Colonel McCormick, the German Iron Cross, with pretzels; and for Hearst, the undying gratitude of all anti-Democratic, un-American, subversive elements in this country who hate with an inveterate hate, "government of the people, for the people and by the people."

CPL. CLYDE HORN WRITES ABOUT BEING IN MOVIES

Cpl. Clyde Horn, Riverside, March Field, writes exciting news about being in the movies.

"I am actually going to be in a picture show."

I acted in the movies for Warner Brothers this morning. The famous director, Howard Hawks, was out here. Warner Brothers is making a short on the training of combat crews called "Winning Your Wings". All I did was to walk in with another toy and report to a captain in my squadron and stand at attention while he gave us some orders and then salute and leave. . . If the "short" does come to Grenada, get Mr. Williams to notify you so you can see it.

Editor's Note: We requested Mrs. Horn to allow us to copy this interesting news item from Clyde's letter. Clyde is happy in his work and is optimistic about the war. He stresses the necessity for conserving our food and other resources.

Helping Hand

One reason you see so much advertising is this:

It helps people with something to sell to find customers.

It helps those folks called "consumers" to find out about things they want to buy.

All of which is another way of saying, advertising saves a lot of time for everyone.

That's why advertising pays-on both sides of the counter.

As Mr. Allen more elaborately says in an article on the editorial page, his views and my views do not necessarily coincide. Yet his views come from honest convictions; and so do mine. A well balanced newspaper should contain the OTHER side.

Hon. T. G. Abernethy, candidate for Congress, honored our office with a call Tuesday. We note that he was using some cards printed by the lit print shop in his home town of Okolona, supporting those who had helped support him. No Union Label appeared on the card. What the hell would Tom want with a Union Label on his card for, for there is not a union shop in his district. He is not opposed to unions, let it be understood, but is merely supporting, or helping support, home industry.

There are a good many meetings going on in Grenada; in fact, if one attended every meeting, he would have time for nothing else. Most meetings are characterized by a constipation of accomplishments and a diarrhoea of words and resolutions.

Wonder who is going to run the hosiery mill when the Solar takes up arms in defense of this country?

William Wright entertained a number of his friends at Ferdinand Monday night and served among other things a lot of hard boiled eggs. Orley Lilly accused him of finding Queen's nest at an egg hunt.

There are a good many stray women in town, and many more to come.

We admire all the Gospels, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. This week we are inclined toward John, for Mrs. S. D. Johns of Route 2 is a new subscriber.

Much obliged to Brother Longcoy for a handsome and instructive book, "The Bell Telephone System."

Rev. C. G. Scrivena, P. E. of this district of the M. E. Church, has become a regular subscriber to the GCW. One by one we are adding the substantial colored people of the community to our list.

Aint they sweet

About the only white citizens who have not been mentioned as possible candidates for Mayor are George Yeager, J. T. Thomas, Henry Ray, Ben Townes and the writer and his two employees, Horn and Greenfield.

We got a lot of dope at the Ground Hog shop about the mayor's race, but it has not been thoroughly investigated.

We did find out at the G. H. Barber Shop that Sax Weir was in the market for an automatic kicking machine.

Allen Cooperage Company and the Grenada Plywood Box Company have moved into their new office recently rebuilt on a greater scale following the cyclone.

The old lady and I got a good deal of dope on how the USO operates in Biloxi.

Miss Olga Campbell, who used to get The Sentinel when I operated it, is now a new subscriber of the GCW. Welcome, Miss Olga. She told me to put her on the list when I was at the Italian wedding at the Community House, but I must have forgotten it, as I got pretty full.

We earnestly solicit enough job work for the week-end to keep Horn out of devilment, as he is prone to get into devilment when he is idle.

"West Ward", as written up by the old lady seemed to have stirred up a hornet's nest.

By all means, let the City Council appoint a Police Judge at a fixed salary, so that the Mayor can devote his attention to the general welfare of Grenada.

It is our considered opinion that Grenada should not extend the city limits. New sewers, new water mains, additional area to police and collect garbage from and addition paving of streets would bust the town.

Candidates who send us stuff for publication are wasting stamps unless they enclose checks with their announcements. Our policy is "To Hell With All Politicians". Cash on the barrel head.

People of Grenada, who have not been around army camp towns, just simply do not know what Grenada is getting into.

Hugh White, Former Governor, As Seen From Under The Magnolia Tree

By Herbert B. Allen

Public offices possess the same magic charm for older boys, that carnivals and circuses hold for young boys. It's all a matter of age. And no matter how disillusioning a man's experience in office may have been, his political ambitions survive with an amazing vitality.

The report that former governor Hugh White may become a candidate for the United States Senate is interesting from several angles. A great change must have come over Mr. White since I listened to him recite his experience as governor.

Mr. White's political "BLUES OF 1941" evidently has been transposed into a Columbia version of "HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN". Once stung by the political bee they stay stung—and like it!

Governor White's record as Chief Executive was above the average. His "Balance Agriculture With Industry Act" was definitely constructive. Like all laws, it had its imperfections. But its general effect was to stimulate industry in this state.

There was nothing new about that legislation, for around the turn of the century similar laws were enacted at Jackson. Nevertheless, Governor White's stimulation of Mississippi industry was timely. It was a step in the ONLY direction possible in this machine age; and particularly so since the export markets for Southern cotton have evaporated.

Governor White was conspicuous for his inflexible independence in the appointment of state judges. He is not a lawyer, but he has definite convictions as to the qualifications of candidates for the Bench. His appointments reflected the exercise of the best judgment.

In several instances, his best judgment failed to coincide with the wishes of his friends in the legal profession. In consequence, the Governor lost many friends of long standing because he chose to place the best interests of the state above their personal political ambitions. That gave him a temporary political nausea.

Governor White is a likeable personality. In common with his fellow men, he is a queer admixture of strength and weakness; but his personal integrity is untarnished. Handsome, suave, genial and hospitable, against the rich background of his beautiful estate, he impressed me as being representative of the finest type of Southern gentleman.

But if Hugh White is seriously considering reentering the political arena, he may do well to ponder where his services would prove most valuable and effective. Washington is far from the Mississippi scene; and our next governor will serve during the most critical period in the history of this state—bar none.

A serious period of readjustment and reorganization faces the entire nation, the entire globe. But the effects of the post-war convulsion will be felt more drastically in Mississippi than in the nation generally.

The pressure of coming events demands imperatively that we must elect as our next governor, a man with a background of successful attainments in both private and public affairs; a man who has passed through the fires of experience; a man of un-

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE TO CREDITORS

of Robert W. Sharp, Deceased
Letters of Executorship having been granted on the 16th day of April, 1942, by the Chancery Court of Grenada County, Mississippi, to the undersigned upon the estate of Robert W. Sharp, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against said estate to present the same to the Clerk of said Court for Probate and registered according to law within six months from this date, or they will be forever barred.

This 16th day of April, A. D., 1942.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Office of District Supervisor, Alcohol Tax Unit, Bureau of Internal Revenue, New Orleans, Louisiana. Date of first publication, April 23, 1942. Notice is hereby given that on March 28, 1942, one A19 gauge H. and R. Handy Gun, Serial No. 12529, was seized in Grenada County, Mississippi, for violation of Section 2726, Sub. Chap. B of Chap. 25, I. R. C. Any person claiming an interest in said property must appear at the office of Investigator in Charge, Alcohol Tax Unit, 1002 Deposit Guaranty Bank Building, Jackson, Mississippi, and file claim and cost bond as provided by Section 3724, Internal Revenue Code, on or before May 25, 1942; otherwise the property will be disposed of according to law. impeachable character. This is no time to think of entrusting the interests of the state in the hands of a man whose sole qualifications are his good intentions. It has been truthfully remarked that "The road to hell is paved with good intentions." Let us not LOOK for trouble!

Governor White is a useful and valuable citizen. He is also one of the few men in this state with successful experience in large scale modern industrial problems. Mr. White commands respect in national business circles, an asset possessed by no other possible candidate for the governorship; and an asset of immense potential value to this state.

Mississippi has been good to Hugh White. Hugh White owes much to Mississippi. His legitimate ambition to represent the Magnolia State in the United States Senate is most commendable. But in view of the rapidly approaching crisis in state affairs, it might be wiser and more patriotic for him to subordinate his personal preference to serve in Washington, in order to render a still greater service to the state as our next governor.

It is not too soon to commence planning a progressive program designated to guide the destinies of this state during the impending critical times.

No one has demonstrated ability equal to Governor White in securing the enactment of legislation aimed at stimulating the commerce and industry of Mississippi. I know of no man with the ability and qualifications to perform this imperative task, other than Hugh White.

In Jackson, Mr. White is a senior statesman in his own right; in Washington he would be just another junior Senator. I earnestly suggest to my friend in Columbia, that no other Mississippian possesses the ability and experience, the time and the facilities requisite to planning and charting the

History Repeats Itself

After his death, Mayor R. W. Sharp received a letter from Chancellor J. A. Smith, Sr., containing a newspaper article about Grenada having been recommended as a suitable site for an army camp during the war for Southern Independence. The article, captioned, "History Repeats Itself," followed:

"History so often repeats itself and it has happened recently in the recommendation of Grenada, Mississippi, for Army cantonments by the War Department."

Mrs. Len Marlbury, the president of the Holly Springs Garden Club, has a letter in her possession written by her great grandfather, Brigadier General A. M. West of Civil War fame recommending Grenada for a Brigade encampment.

General West writes to Calvin McAfee, Jackson, Miss., that he had examined other places and said, "I returned to Grenada where I found everything necessary to make that place desirable. Abundant and good water, camp grounds and open fields for parade adjacent high and dry, with access to wood free of cost. The fair grounds, securely enclosing several acres with shelter and room for the protection of 1000 persons they say, two large springs in a few feet were also rendered without cost. The citizens volunteered liberally for the support of this state through the perilous postwar period."

These are not normal times; they are exceedingly abnormal. Mississippians would do well to cast aside those petty considerations that influence political opinions in ordinary times, and patriotically serve this state for the man most capable of coping with the grave problems looming ominously on the horizon.

No man in this state, by virtue of his experience and ability, is so well qualified to discharge the great responsibilities that will rest upon the shoulders of our post-war Governor, as the Honorable Hugh White, of Columbia.

port of our men in provisions, wood, etc."

I at once wrote General Davis suggesting a change and report also to you and through you to the Governor, hoping it may meet the approbation of all.

I would add that I requested Mr. Murphy, in whose judgment I have great confidence, to accompany me on my trip that I might get his opinion as to the health of any place selected and I am sustained in my opinion by him as to the superior claims of Grenada over any place examined. In addition to the advantage of Grenada I may mention the railroad facilities at that place."

This letter was written from the Headquarters 2nd Brigade Mississippi Volunteers, Durant, Mississippi on July 19, 1861.

Unless we get some good weather, us poor farmers are going to starve to death this winter.

New High in Ship Production

Bethlehem ship production this year will represent the greatest all-round shipbuilding output by any company in the history of the country.

Speed, speed and more speed is the constant objective; and always speed with quality, for a jerry-built ship is virtually useless in the grim tasks of maritime war.

The first Liberty ship which recently discharged supplies at a Red Sea port was built in a yard that was virtually nonexistent a year ago. A tanker was delivered in 100 days from laying of keel. A battleship will be delivered 14 months ahead of schedule.

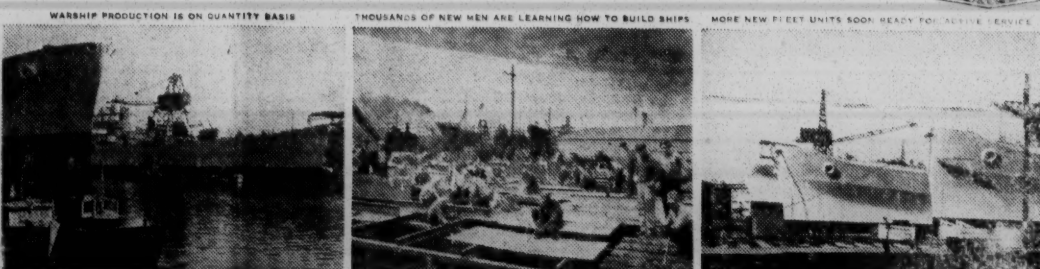

Cargo ships are being built in less than one-half the time required in the first World War. Comparable speeding up has been achieved on other types of ships and the schedule is being constantly stepped-up.

Expanding old yards, building new ones, tripling employment in a year's time, training thousands of new men, putting every effective facility to use, adopting pre-assembly and mass production methods—all these spell tonnage and more tonnage, a steadily-mounting output of ships from Bethlehem yards.

All hands are doing their utmost for Victory, working to achieve the maximum for the U. S. Navy and the U. S. Maritime Commission, so that the "bridge of ships" shall be maintained and steadily enlarged.

Pull the Trigger on Constipation, with Ease for Stomach, too

When constipation brings on discomfort after meals, stomach upset, bloating, dizzy spells, gas, coated tongue, and bad breath, your stomach is probably "crying the blues" because your bowels don't move. It calls for Laxative-Senna to pull the trigger on those lazy bowels, combined with Syrup Pepsin for perfect ease to your stomach in taking. For years, many Doctors have given Laxative-Senna preparations in their prescriptions to make medicine more agreeable to a touchy stomach. So be sure your laxative contains Laxative-Senna. Insist on Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin. See how wonderfully the Laxative-Senna wakes up lazy nerves and muscles in your intestines to bring welcome relief from constipation. And the good old Syrup Pepsin makes this laxative so comfortable and easy on your stomach. Even finicky children love the taste of this pleasant family laxative. Take Dr. Caldwell's Laxative-Senna combined with Syrup Pepsin, as directed on label or as your doctor advises, and feel world's better. Get genuine Dr. Caldwell's.

We Can All Be EXPERT BUYERS

- In bringing us buying information, as to prices that are being asked for what we intend to buy, and as to the quality we can expect, the advertising columns of this newspaper perform a worth while service which saves us many dollars a year.
- It is a good habit to form, the habit of consulting the advertisements every time we make a purchase, though we have already decided just what we want and where we are going to buy it. It gives us the most priceless feeling in the world: the feeling of being adequately prepared.
- When we go into a store, prepared beforehand with knowledge of what is offered and at what price, we go as an expert buyer, filled with self-confidence. It is a pleasant feeling to have, the feeling of adequacy. Most of the unhappiness in the world can be traced to a lack of this feeling. This advertising shows another of its manifold facets—shows itself as an aid toward making all our business relationships more secure and pleasant.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for April 26

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

WAYSIDE CONVERSATIONS

LESSON TEXT—Luke 13:22-35.
GOLDEN TEXT—And whosoever doth not bear his cross and come after me, cannot be my disciple.—Luke 14:27.

Learning by talking with Christ as they walked from place to place—such was the training for service which the disciples received. That was the greatest school this world has ever known, for while it had no great buildings, no beautiful campus, no learned faculty, it had the Son of God Himself as preceptor and teacher. With all due regard for our fine colleges and seminaries, we say this is still the outstanding need of Christian workers—to walk and talk with Christ.

On the day of which our lesson speaks the subject considered was how to be saved, and who should be saved. Several trends of thought emerged, but all pointed in the one direction of a diligent following of God's plan. In order to be saved, we learn, a man must

I. Make an Earnest Effort (vv. 22-24).

The question regarding how many were saved received no direct answer for our Lord wished to direct attention to the far more important question—Are you saved? Get that settled and the other matter will care for itself.

Here some who assume that it is an easy thing to be saved will receive a surprise, for our Lord says (v. 24) that it is something one must "strive" over, for so may the word "strive" be translated. The door into eternal life is so narrow that no man can pass through it with his sins—they must be taken away. Seeking is not enough (v. 24), one must "strive" to enter in.

II. Enter While the Door is Open (vv. 25-30).

The door stands open for all who will, to come in. (What a friendly thing is an open door!) But men idly ignore it, or definitely reject its opportunity. Or they seek it, but do not strive to enter in, and all at once it is closed. Then in a frenzy they seek to enter, but it is too late. What an appalling thing—to be eternally too late!

Note their claims of acquaintance with the Lord (v. 26). One is reminded of those who think they are Christians because father or mother belonged to the church, or because they attend an occasional church supper or listen to a sermon by radio. Unless we know Him personally as our Saviour, He will have to say to us, Depart from me, ye workers of iniquity (v. 27). Let us make that matter very clear to those to whom we minister, lest they be eternally lost.

III. Follow the Fearless Christ (vv. 31-33).

To know the high and unwavering character of one's leader is to go forward with real confidence. What about the Captain of our salvation? Here we find Him facing the indirect threat of a powerful and wicked earthly ruler, in perfect calmness, with the very poise of eternity upon Him.

Christ, conscious of His divine mission and with determination to do the Father's will (Heb. 10:7), knew no fear of man. As we are in His holy will as Christian men and women, we too may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me (Heb. 13:6).

Consider the rebuke to Herod (v. 32). There is probably no place in Scripture where our Lord spoke with such stinging contempt of any man. It is almost as though the black cloud of eternal judgment already had settled around the head of this man who was so sly and crafty that the tenderhearted Jesus called him a "fox." One wonders of how many He would have to say the same in this our day of supreme and malicious wickedness.

We find one more vitally important thought here. Our Lord offers Himself. He calls sinners to repentance, but they must

IV. Respond to His Invitation (vv. 34, 35).

To fail to accept His proffered love is to be left desolate. To reject Him as Saviour (either by neglect or by definite act) is inevitably to bring judgment. To the Jews this meant loss of their national home—their leading city, but to us it means the loss of our eternal souls.

"There is terrible suggestiveness in the two statements in verse 34, 'I would,' 'Ye would not.' The whole secret of Jerusalem's desolation and destruction is found in the words, 'Ye would not.' The whole secret of the loss of the individual soul is found in the words, 'Ye will not' (John 5:40)" (John W. Bradbury).

This lesson presses home to the individual reader the question, Are you saved? What is your answer? It also affords the Sunday school teacher an excellent opportunity to seek to lead the members of the class to a definite decision for Christ. The Sunday school is a good place to give an invitation

Hats Are the Most Intriguing
We've Had for Many a Season

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

THE most significant news about millinery fashions this season is that they are utterly, prettily feminine, versatile and flattering. Designed with a purpose they are—hats that patriotically serve as gloom dispellers and spirit uplifters in these times so tense with war activities and anxieties.

That is why the new hats are so purposefully gay with color, so charmingly be-flowered and beribboned, so flatteringly be-veiled and so versatile in mood. The little flower fantasies with which the spring season is starting off are simply enchanting, but no more so than the new tremendously wide brims so softly and becomingly wrought into graceful lines.

Then there are the very diminutive sailors dashing right down over the brow or perched jauntily back of the pompadour, each and every one bewitchingly veiled. There are calots "ad infinitum," and they are set back of the pompadour, too, and the color-bright and debonair wide brimmed felts paired so dramatically with the new spring suits—not a dull moment in millinery realms anywhere!

The accompanying group illustration presents a series of outstanding millinery trends. Very feminine is the glamour hat shown in the upper left corner. It is just such little flowery fantasies which, together with a sprightly whiff of veil, will give fillip to your suit or suit-dress on a sunny spring day. Dusty pink is its color theme, a color that brings out the fresh radiance of a young complexion. Candy straw is the medium and pink flowers are massed at the front.

Saucy sailors after the manner of the one pictured to the right, above, abound in the millinery picture. It's made of colorful plaid taffeta, has an upturned brim and plaid streamers. Too smart for words with your spring suit!

A hat with a flattering, feminine brim is centered in the group. This "picture" model is of navy toyo with red velvet ribbon and bunches of cherries.

In the lower left corner is a flowery confection that typifies what is and what is to be during the coming months in the way of becoming chapeaux to wear with your gay prints or your softly styled tailleur.
And that brings up an important point; namely, it's fashionable to wear flowered headgear with suits nowadays. This has come about because suits are in such a vast majority. Because of the call for practical clothes, one's hat and accessories are drafted into the role of supplying the "prettifying" accents. The veil flaunted by this dainty sailor of tuscany straw is green. So is the band of felt that encircles the crown. The wealth of wild flowers that adds glory to this winsome sailor are in a pretty confusion of multi-colors.

Concluding the story of the group,
the hat below to the right has one of the new dashing and debonair brims that are the "last word" in casual types to wear with everything from prints to tailored suits.
It is made of powder blue ice cloth with an allover stitching covering the brim. The enhancing veil is black splashed with blue dots. The softly styled blouse is made of a vividly colorful print patterned with enormous flowers. Many of the smartest blouses this season are just like that—gay as a tropical garden in full bloom.

Longer Shorts

Spring seaboard fashions are personified by this many purpose war-robe essential. Gray flannel and deep pockets that would delight the heart of any little boy make these longer shorts ideal for the woman who wants the comfort of shorts without the need for wearing the more extreme versions. Popular for southern resort wear earlier this winter and spring, these will undoubtedly be favorites for summer wear all over the country.

Dress-Up Clothes

Versus Functional

There is no doubt in the mind of anyone as to the outstanding importance of functional clothes for women busy in defense work and home activities. Everyone connected with apparel industries is doing a grand job in supplying these needs.

However, as they get more and more into the subject they find that the dress-up side of the question demands more than passing attention, for the feeling is growing that it is also a patriotic duty to be one's prettiest at the right time and at the right place. The entertaining of men home on furlough, or at camp in strange and new surroundings, has resolved into a continuous program of benefit and dance parties.
So have your pretty party frocks ready, girls. It's your patriotic duty.

Just now the new shorter length evening frocks made of lace or dainty sheer stand in fashion's spotlight. Quite as important are the straight-line, narrow floor-length dresses which have a dignity of their own.

Morning, Noon and Night

It's Cotton Everywhere!

It is going to be a banner year for cottons of every type, from utilitarian denims and gabardines to the most ethereal sheer weaves.

For evening wear there is a tendency to wear exquisitely sheer embrodered and lace-trimmed lingerie-type dresses and blouses. The sheer-est of voiles and the crispest of organdies are being made up with endless ruffles in as dainty a manner as fancy can picture.

Shawls

Shawls with evening gowns and sports dresses made of self material for daytime costumes and of filmy chiffon or lace for evening will animate your appearance with a definitely new style touch.

HINTS

If you have an electric range, try washing the glass window in the oven door with baking soda instead of soap.

To give that frosty touch, often desired for sherbet cups or tall glasses, dip them in warm water, chill them in the refrigerator until the frost forms, or about an hour. Then fill and serve at once.

Don't wash eggs before putting them in the refrigerator. Simply wipe them off with a dry cloth to preserve the natural bloom that protects the interior of the egg from the air.

If adhesive or gummed tape becomes too stiff to use, soften it with two tablespoons of warm water and half a teaspoon of glycerine.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The school season's most gala occasion took place Tuesday night in the Community House when the Juniors entertained the Seniors at the annual Junior-Senior banquet. The schemes carried out in all the decorations was the "April Fool" idea. The hall was decorated with Christmas beds rung by green and red crepe paper, hallowe'en pumpkins and jack-o-lanterns, carrots and tomatoes signifying health and Old Glory was hung for patriotic decorations. Signs such as "Keep off the grass," "Don't park here," "Wet Paint," "Beware of the dog," were hung all over the walls. The table covers were all different, some being appropriate for each season of the year such as Halloween, Easter, and Christmas. The place cards were miniature dolls, with the guests names written backward. All during the main course the "Stardusters" played their sweet music that put everyone in a nice dreamy mood.

The menu was:
spaghetti
pickles, potato chips, rolls
butter tea ice cream
The girl waiters, dressed as clowns, acted as though they were professional. Their suits were made of loud and gay colors. The waitresses were: Pauline Elliott, Ruth Lee Morrow, Lavern Wilson, Jean Geeslin, Catherine Herring, Maggie McCorkle, Ruth Talbert, Peggy Thompson, Polly Parler.

Miss Owen was the "mother" of this banquet as she is the Junior class sponsor. Miss Owen should be given full credit for the success of the whole thing. The food was never better, and the fun was never so plentiful, as at this party given for the seniors. The seniors will always be grateful for this grand party, as well as to the Junior class mothers for the wonderful food served.

The Girl Reserves met in the gym to be entertained by a presentation of the farce Soapfallo.

The actresses were:
Soapfallo, Beautiful heroine, Bernice Jones.

White haired Daddio, her father, Pauline Richardson.

Spazetto, the hero, Mary Lib Horton.

Cana Suplo, Villain, Caroline Whitaker.

Two Maidens, Lucy Moss and Margaret Spain.

Treelo, Willie Peag.

Master of Ceremonies, Margaret Stanley.

WAKE UP, G. H. S.!

Last Wednesday morning Coach Hathorn made a talk on the support which the students in Grenada High School should give the extra-curricular activities. It is very disappointing to everyone concerned when a baseball game is played on the local field and only about five or ten students come out to urge our players on. Also when the various trials in field meet are given, very seldom do the pupils really turn out in full to view the meet. During basketball season the same thing happened, probably more students coming from the visiting towns who were playing than from our own school. At our last baseball game with Charleston, Coach said that the number of students present could have been counted on both hands. During the expression contests, the combined students not entering the contest were not enough shown as the guests around. The morale of the school should not drop so drastically when there is nothing to cause it. Why not go and see more of the baseball games? You spend your money freely enough at the drug stores, theatres, and other places of amusements—why not at the amusements sponsored by the school itself? Yes, we must see that we have no excuses or very poor ones at least for being so lax in creating enthusiasm for our school's programs.

In order for any school organization to be a complete success it must be backed up by every single one of us. Everyone should support all activities as if he were a part of them and urge others to do the same.

COME ON GRENADE HI, WAKE UP!

LETTERS PRESENTED TO BASKETBALL TEAMS

In chapel Wednesday Mr. Hathorn presented the basketball awards to the outstanding members of the '41-'42 team. The senior who had not received a sweater at any other time for any other sport received good-looking sweaters. James Thomas was the only senior boy to be given a sweater. Mary Lou Cullen, Billie Guy Thomas, and Hazel Turner received sweaters as they were girl senior eazers. Others receiving letters were: Boys—Edgar Turnipseed, Bet Thompson, Lambert Gammon, Max Moore, Griffin Thomas, Thomas McCleod, Bennie Moore, and R. C. Purdy. Girls—Mary Moore, Juchheim, Margaret Cannon, Beebe Cullen, and "Sunshine" Morrow.

Congratulations, team!

FIVE HIGHEST STUDENTS NAMED

In chapel Wednesday Mr. Rundle announced the names of the highest ranking seniors. The valedictorian of the class of '42 is president of the class, James Thomas. Salutatorian is Bennie Cohen. Louise Avent ranked third; Sara Abel ranked fourth; and Beulah Abel, fifth. All five of the students not only rank high in scholarship but also take active part in many extra-curricular activities. Congratulations!

G. R.'S ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The seniors in the Girl Reserve club met last week to select the officers for next year's Girl Reserve Club. The girls elected are as follows: President, Marguerite Stanley; Vice-President, Lucy Moss; Treasurer, Winifred Saunders; Secretary, Margaret Green; Song Leader, Libba Horton; Pianist, Ruth Townes.

Membership Chairman, Lavern Wilson.

Service Chairman, Betty Jane Yeager.

Social Chairman, Mary E. Cowan.

Triangles' Leaders, Ruth Talbert, Beebe Cullen, Lil York and Jean Geeslin.

These girls were selected on basis of leadership, personality, and a good sense of morals, as well as being able to work hard for the club. These girls, we know, will be as fine as have been the retiring officers.

DIRT

There's so much dirt after the banquet that we hardly know where to begin. But here goes:

Junior-Senior Highlight:

Heading our list are Dot Talbert and Bet Thompson properly chaperoned by Turnip and Billie Guy at the banquet. They had a splendid time together. It is rumored that it took Bet two weeks to get up enough courage to ask Dot—Mut and Libba looked swell together—Several couples went bowling afterward and were sore the next morning—More of the boys sat in Billie Guy's chair to be kissed than any other. Turnip sure was proud of having such a popular girl but there was some disadvantage—Jackie in her red dress couldn't be resisted by E. C. Litten—Rogers lost his shoe 'bout eight o'clock and was still searching diligently for it when the club closed—Frances Herring was squired by sister Catherine's flame, James Elliott, and wore a corsage sent to her by a certain Bob Campbell—The casualties of the night was the absence of several teachers and pupils from school the next day—Will Horton said he ate too much—John Prather better known as "Speed" gave several gals a thrill by being the lone man at a nice corner booth—Paul Hill strictly "cut the rug" after the floor show. P. S. Paul didn't have a partner—Bennie Moore sure did catch a swell looking bunch of "suckers"—Lynn Rose never could find Billie's shoes—ain't he dumb?—Lou couldn't have looked any prettier—Rowe couldn't have looked any better—Rowe and Lou sure do make a nice looking couple—Mr. and Mrs. Gammon and Mr. and Mrs. Chapuis were there in fine style, acting just like us unmarried school kids—Lucy looked kinda sad as she knew that if Jimmy Hale were here things would have been different—The clown waiters were darling—The clapping on the off-beat of "Deep in the Heart of Texas" was kinda "off"—Bernice went with "Cowboy" Trussell—Heard one girl say she was going to use one of those dunce caps for her Sunday-go-to-meeting-hat—We've seen uglier and crazier hats we'll assure you—Someone said this was a "survival of the fittest"—Anne Duncan was all decked out in green and looking very good—Our old friend James Thomas made a good speech on behalf of the Sealers—Everyone was sorry "Jake" Theisman couldn't make it—W. T. Hill, the old meanie, didn't give one of those gals a chance but came stag—Harold said Freshman Granberry had the softest-girlish lips—Freshman sure did give ten or twelve boys a thrill—Monty and Emmett were in their glory taking pictures of everyone and acting very important—Miss Owen sure is a good sport to let the kids stay and dance—Billie Blaylock squired himself to the banquet—Rose and Ralph had a fine time conversing at a corner table—Betty Ann Gresham and Lambert (the word meaning little lamb) made a nice looking pair—The loved fat and he loved lean and between them both they licked the platter clean—Jualian Wilson was looking sharp enough in his Sunday suit—Johnny Mitchell, our "Zoot-suit" boy took Berta along with him to this gala event—Ain't love grand?

—The orchestra was grand—Jay Gore and Maggie were in their glory—Anne Odum was there in fine style with that darling light brown dress—Nell Joiner was looking sweet and at well we won't tell—Hazel Turner, words can't describe her looks or that dress she had on, was squired there by a very, very happy young man—Polly turned down several dates to date her one and only—Buddie Avent.

State U. S. O. Campaign Representative Praises GCW

The following letter was received from Mr. H. B. Durkee, USO State Campaign Representative in Mississippi, by Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, who is the USO Publicity Chairman in Grenada.

"This afternoon it has been possible for me to go over carefully your issue of the Grenada County Weekly of March 5th, and may I express my very great appreciation of the USO publicity on its front page.

"In particular I am interested in the record of USO organization in the second article. It should be ideal to be able to pass this or a transcription of it to each county committee in this state. If there is any way in which we may have some eighty copies of it, at an early date, I should be glad to pay the cost of same.

"The organization seems to me perfect for virtually every section of Mississippi and coming right out of one of the Mississippi towns it should be taken over as virtually no outside example would be.

"May I again express my appreciation of the cooperation that made this meeting such an inspiration."

BRASS HATS ON BONE HEADS

Under the spreading chestnut tree
The men in uniform
Who show, by their inaction,
Great reluctance to perfect
The minds beneath their service caps
Are cluttered up with chaff:
They much resemble experts on Our Army Generals Staff.

Their brothers, garbed in navy blue,
Are growling in discord:
They look, and act, like experts on Our Navy General Board.
They brood upon Pearl Harbor,
And lament about Bataan:
"It simply is too dreadful."
They murmur with a yawn.

Our army needs a Washington,
Our fleet a John Paul Jones:
Both Services need leadership
By brains instead of bones!

—Herbert B. Allen.
(The caps of Generals and Admirals are decorated with gold—hence the term "Brass Hats.")

If we did not mention that James Jacks, one of Uncle Sam's gobs on the Pacific coast is a new subscriber, we do it now. We have a damsite more subscribers on the Pacific coast than we have in Casella.

Fred Sullens has been mighty quiet here lately. He must be fixing to break out in a new place.

From where we sit we believe the governor's race will be between Tom Bailey and Hugh White, if the latter runs, as many expect.

ELECTION MEMBER GRENADE COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD

As required by law the trustees of the common and consolidated schools of Grenada County will hold the annual meeting at the court house in Grenada, Mississippi, Friday, May 1, 1942, at 2:30 p. m. to elect a member of the Grenada County School Board to the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of Mr. Guy Fite from Beat Two of Grenada County, Mississippi. Respectfully submitted,
